

Looking after the animals comprehension – Solutions

1. Freedom from hunger and thirst. Teacher check.
Freedom from discomfort. Teacher check.
Freedom from pain, injury or disease. Teacher check.
Freedom to express normal behaviour. Teacher check.
Freedom from fear and distress. Teacher check.
2. Teacher check.
3.
 - a. Looking after the welfare of animals is a legal requirement in Australia.
 - b. In 1965, the British government released a report about animal welfare that included guidelines that are now followed by many organisations, including the RSPCA.
 - c. Animals deserve to live a content, stress-free life.
 - d. The 'Five Freedoms' for animals under human control are the basic, minimum standards that our livestock farmers adhere to.